

CONVICTED SWINDLER STILL INSISTS UPON USING BROTHER'S NAME

George Lynch Sent to Bellevue for Examination as to His Sanity.

George M. Lynch, who was convicted in the Court of Special Sessions under the name of William Lynch of selling a fraudulent contract for advertising on the Madison Square Roof Garden, was today sent to the psychopathic ward of Bellevue Hospital for observation at the request of his counsel, Maurice Meyer. After Lynch's trial the Court was inclined to suspend sentence if recommitment was made, and he was remanded to the Tombs. Following the report of Probation Officer Mullins, however, in which Lynch was shown to have a police record, sentence was adjourned until a report might be made as to his sanity.

"This prisoner was the favored son of the late Mrs. Theresa Lynch," said Officer Mullins. "She was prominent in the diamond trade and until her death ten years ago, this son was never compelled to work. At her death he inherited about $60,000, which he lost in Wall Street. His wife is separated from him and his relatives will have nothing to do with him. He has been in trouble many times, but he has not always been prosecuted, owing to his family and the intervention of friends.

"He generally used his brother's name—William. The latter is a partner in a large jewelry concern and a respectable member of society. The prisoner still insists to use that name as William. Lynch was arrested for soliciting fraudulent advertising for a fire programme some time ago, but was not prosecuted. He also solicited without authority, funds for St. Gabriel's Sanitarium, during the Ohio flood, represented himself as a special agent for Governor Cox to collect funds. He is also charged with giving worthless contracts to the New York Railways Company for advertising privileges.

"In 1906 he was convicted, before Justice Goff, of grand larceny and sent to the penitentiary for a year, although Archbishop Corrigan, whose name was used by the swindler, asked the Court for mercy in his behalf. In 1905 he was convicted of grand larceny and sentenced was suspended. The following year he was arrested, after his release from the penitentiary and returned there on conviction under a similar charge, by Judge Roosevelt."

MARRIAGE MUCH BETTER THAN A CAREER FOR GIRLS.

Can Do Their Best Work for Themselves and Society in Life Partnership, Says University Head.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., June 12.—Stearns is better than a career. President Edmund J. Stearns of the University of Illinois yesterday told about three hundred women graduates who had just completed four years of training for a profession.

"The average man and the average woman can do their best work for themselves and for society in a partnership which results in a social unit effective for social progress," said President Stearns. "The woman who deliberately chooses this career when the opportunity offers itself, or when she makes it for herself, as every woman can, is choosing a highway to social service which is far ahead of all teaching or legal or medical service she can possibly render society."

"It looks sometimes as if our modern society is giving the honors of social recognition and opportunity to the bachelor maid instead of to the wife and mother. Just in proportion as this is done will society surely suffer by recruiting its ranks in the long run from the uneducated and more animal elements."

SKIN ERUPTION ALL OVER HEAD

Little Festers Would Itch and Burn. Sores Looked Angry. Hair Came Out. Lots of Dandruff. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Now Free from Trouble.

R. F. D. No. 1, Constantia, N. Y.—"For some time my little girl of four years was bothered with sores which would break out in little festers all over her head. The little festers would itch and burn so my little girl could not leave them alone day or night, and would cause sores which would look very angry. Her hair came out gradually and the back of her head, and where the sores were there would be a sort of white cone.

"I tried several ointments which did no good. I also used about three months. One day I saw Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertised, so sent for two samples, which I found were very good. I bought some Cuticura Soap and Ointment and it was but a short time before the trouble was better and she is now entirely free from it." (Signed) Mrs. Philip Russell, Aug. 25, 1912.

When you buy a fine toilet soap think of the advantages Cuticura Soap possesses over the most expensive toilet soap ever made. In addition to being absolutely pure and refreshingly fragrant, it is delicately yet effectively medicated, giving you two soaps in one, a toilet and a skin soap at one price, sold throughout the world. Sample of each mailed free, with 25-c. Skin Book. Address postpaid "Cuticura, Dept. T., Boston."
